

Roger Edmunds

Principal - Rehabilitation

Career Objective

To deliver Human Services, in an Occupational Rehabilitation context, that consistently demonstrates a clear understanding of best practice case management principles.

To be an active, productive, solution-seeker with the aim of producing positive or desired outcomes for all stakeholders, even, and especially in, the most challenging of situations.

Professional Roles and Highlights

Over thirty five years of professional achievement in industry and education

- Principal Consultant to industry - Workers Compensation – (1995 – present)
- Principal and Education Consultant - Education, Management, Administration - Public and Private Schools (1986 – present)
- Business Owner - providing Rehabilitation Case Management and Education Services.
- Travelling Scholar – USA – awarded study tour 1978 to investigate the place of Community and Leisure Education in Schools, and Society, in general.
- Award Winning Team Member - Workplace Standards Tasmania Awards - for clients: Pipers Brook Vineyards (2000) and Australian Paper (2001), Category : best health and safety programs
- Counsellor - Rehabilitation (1995-present)

Educational Attainments, Awards and Affiliations

Bachelor of Arts	University of Tasmania (Conferred 1970 – Political Science, Geography, Ancient Civilisations and Australian History.)
Distance Education	1972 Psychology and Philosophy.
Tasmanian Teachers Certificate	Awarded 1973
Master Educational Studies	University of Tasmania (Conferred 1988 - Leadership, Supervision and Management, Programme Design and Delivery.)

Professional Member:

Australian Society of Rehabilitation Counsellors 2008 – present

Registration:

ComCare Rehabilitation Provider 2008 – 2010 (re-application in process)

Current Learning Agenda:

Best Practice in Case Management

Community Involvement

1997 - Present Masters Cricket